

NAP10 Plasticizer for Tyre

Product Description

PetroChina Karamay Petrochemical Company is able to develop and produce the safe process oil – NAP10 with Ca% between 10-12 –through advanced hydrotreating process in accordance with the unique characteristics of naphthenic crude oil and technological advantages of production facilities. It is produced through solvent refining or hydrogenation of naphthenic crude oil

Applications

It is used in carrying out the tire preparation and performance tests. The PAHs and PCA test results of Biochemical Institute for Environment Carcinogens (BIU) are acknowledged by global major rubber and tire industry. BIU was founded by Dr.Gernot Grimmer, a member of the European Network of Excellence (NoE) and Environment Cancer Risk, Nutrition, and Individual Susceptibility (ECNIS). It is also an extender oil or process oil of synthetic rubber and rubber manufactures.